A. The owl has long been the symbol of wisdom. This is due more to the owl's appearance than to its intelligence. In fact, geese and crows are smarter than owls. Over the centuries, the owl's large, staring eyes and thoughtful air have made it seem to be a wise bird. The ancient Greeks believed the owl was the wise companion of Athena, the goddess of wisdom. Yet elsewhere, the owl had the reputation of being unlucky. Because of its solemn air and eerie nighttime hoots and screeches, people once feared the owl as a bird of doom.
